THE RING AND THE FISH

Thomas and Inger are the happiest couple in the world. Two years ago, they were on a boat a few kilometres from the beach. Thomas asked Inger to marry him and he gave her a gold ring. He wanted to put the ring on Inger's finger, but he dropped it and it fell into the sea. They were sure the ring was lost for ever. That is, until last week, when Mr Carlsson visited them. He has a fish shop and he found the ring in a large fish which he was cutting up for one of his customers. The fish thought the ring was something to eat! Mr Carlsson knew that the ring belonged to Thomas and Inger because inside the ring there were some words. They were, 'To Inger, All my love, Thomas'. And so Mr Carlsson gave the ring back to them. Inger now has two rings. When they lost the first one, Thomas bought Inger another one. But they think the one the fish ate is the best one.

Jahan Begum

Jahan Begum was born on a farm in the hills. She lived there with her family (13) thirteen years. The family grew their own food and (14) animals. But then one year it didn't rain so they decided to move to (15) country.

The journey (16) the mountains was long and difficult. (17) first home in the new country was a tent. Then Jahan's brothers made a house with wood and stones so the family had somewhere better to live.

Now, (18) day Jahan makes things like hats and socks out of wool. She sells (19) in the market to get money for food. She is happy with her home and her work, but she (20) hopes to return to her farm in the hills one day.
